

	SLINGSBY SCHOOL Charging and Remissions Policy	Date for Review September 2020
---	---	---

Introduction

This charging policy has been compiled in line with DfES requirements and in accordance with s457 of the Education Act, 1996.

Materials & Textbooks

The school will provide materials for all activities without charge.

Music Tuition

There will be a charge levied for private music tuition. This will be arranged directly between parent and tutor.

Activities Outside School Hours

A charge will be made for activities outside school hours to cover the cost of running the provision.

Damage/Loss to Property

A charge will be levied in respect of wilful damage, neglect or loss of school property (including premises, furniture, equipment, books or materials), the charge to be the cost of replacement or repair, or such lower cost as the Head teacher may decide.

Voluntary Contributions

Where the school cannot levy charges, and it is not possible to make these additional activities within the resources ordinarily available to the school, the school may request or invite parents to make a contribution towards the cost of the trip. Pupils will not be treated differently according to whether or not their parents have made any contribution in response to the request or invitation. However, where there are not enough voluntary contributions to make the activity possible, then it will be cancelled.

Other charges

The Head teacher or Governing Body may levy charges for miscellaneous services up to the cost of providing such services e.g. for providing a copy of an OFSTED report.

Remissions Policy.

The Head teacher or Governing Body may remit in full or part charges in respect of a pupil, if it feels it is reasonable in the circumstances.

The Head teacher or Governing Body may decide not to levy charges in respect of a particular activity, if it feels it is reasonable in the circumstances.
