L.O: I am getting better at checking for missed punctuation.

Today we are looking at the punctuation we need to use. When writing a sentence, we need to remember capital letters for the word at the start of a sentence or name; apostrophes; commas; speech marks and full stops.

We have been reading 'Katie in London' by James Mayhew and I have taken some extracts and typed them up with missed punctuation.

For example,

they all got onto a big red bus and set off to see the sights

They all go onto a big red bus and set off to see the sights.

sorry said a policeman

"Sorry," said a policeman.

I would like you to re-write the sentences I have attached below with the correct punctuation.

- 1) london seemed very big to katie big trains big buildings and big crowds
- 2) katie climbed onto the big bronze lion and pulled jack on after her
- 3) the lion shook his mane hold on tight he roared
- 4) the lion took them to st paul's cathedral first he gazed up at the enormous dome
- 5) next the lion took katie and jack to an old castle
- 6) the lion decided to carry them across the river thames
- 7) stop yelled katie but the lion didn't stop he jumped
- 8) katie and jack followed all the way to the gates of buckingham palace
