

Friday 12th February

LO: I can describe the inner thoughts and emotions of Lila.

Today I would like you to finish the piece of writing you worked on yesterday.

Remember: you are writing as Lila. You are Lila!

Steps to success.

1. Read it over
2. Can you add more about your inner thoughts and emotions. What do you see? What do you feel? Are you afraid? Does your personality come across through your writing?
3. Read it over again, then get your green pen.
4. Edit, and check you have used all the punctuation we have learned about in class, including paragraphs, capital letters and speech marks.
5. Make your final copy.

And have a great half term holiday! 😊
