O LO: Can I write a paragraph about my favourite book and recommend it to other readers?

As it is World Book Day on Thursday 4th March, I thought it would be great to set aside some time to write a short review of our favourite books to go onto a recommended read list that Mrs Jordan is looking to create. I would like you to write a paragraph describing your favourite book and why it is your favourite. For example, you could include:

- The name of your book
- The name of the author and illustrator of the book
- Your favourite part of the book and why
- What happens in the book (don't reveal the whole story as some people won't want to read it if you do!)
- Why you recommend the book
- An image of you with the book
- A short, catchy title to introduce your paragraph

You can use your own template to write your paragraph about your favourite book or you can use the one below. When you have finished your paragraph, send the file in through Dojo! You can either send the word document if you have typed it or send a close-up picture of your paragraph if you have hand written it. Make sure to give it the title 'World Book Day' when you post it to Dojo.
