The Incredible Internet

Imagine life before the Internet!

The grown-ups you know will remember life before the Internet but you haven't been alive long enough to remember what it was like.

Imagine life before the Internet!

Before the Internet, when people wanted to speak to a relative or a friend, they had to call them on the telephone! People would only be able to hear the voice - they couldn't see them on a computer screen.

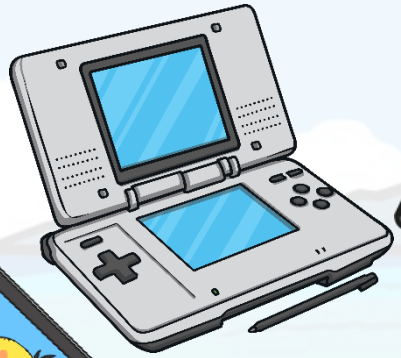
The Incredible Internet

The Internet really is incredible! We can use it to chat, play and learn.



We can connect with friends and family.

We can read lots of different books.

We can watch videos.

We can play games.

We can learn new things.

We can book train tickets, buy our groceries and do many more.

Online Identities

This year, the focus of Safer Internet Day is online identities.

Can you think of any risks linked to using the Internet?

Do you feel free to be yourself online?

Do you feel you can express yourself online?

Do you sometimes feel pressure from others online to look or behave in a certain way?

Online Identities

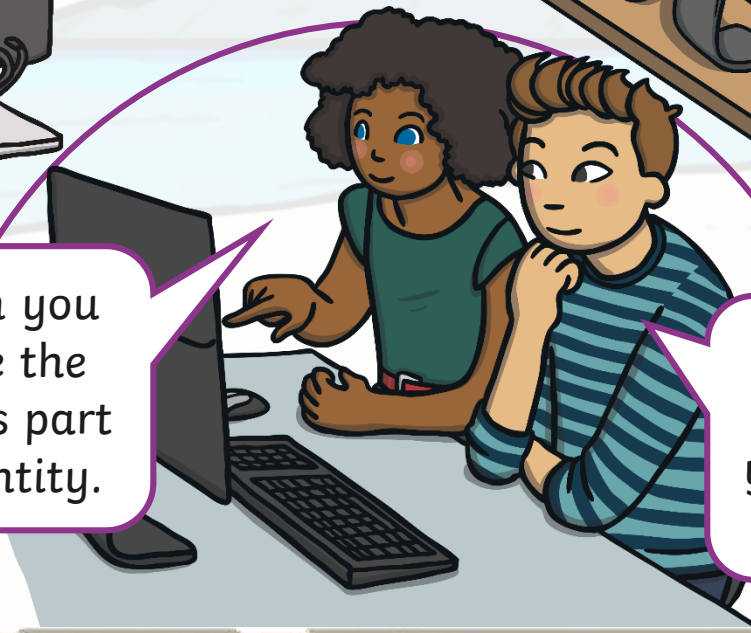
Do you have an avatar that represents you when you are on the Internet?

Do you know how others see you when you are online?

The type of person you are when you use the Internet also forms part of your online identity.



Do you think others would say you play fairly and are kind online?

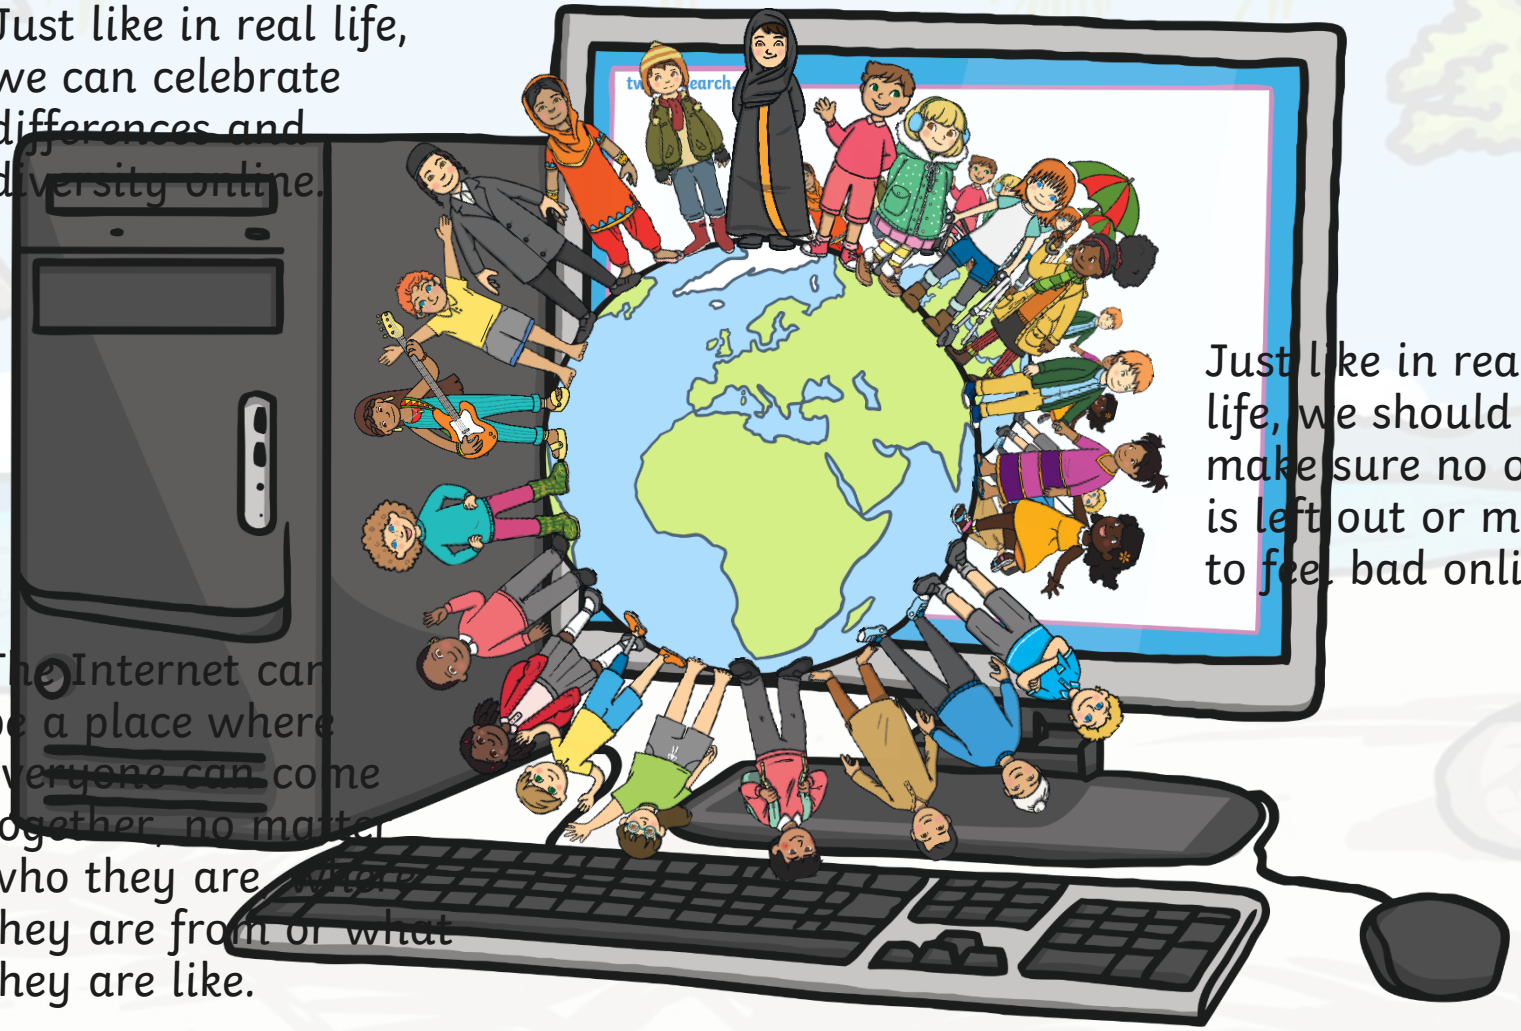
Online Identities

Just like in real life, we can celebrate differences and diversity online.



Just like in real life, we should make sure no one is left out or made to feel bad online.

The Internet can be a place where everyone can come together, no matter who they are, where they are from or what they are like.

How Can We Make a Difference?

There are four key things to think about when it comes to making the Internet a better place for everyone who uses it.

Be responsible – Make sure you use safe websites and ask a grown-up before going online. Report anything you see or anything that happens that makes you feel uncomfortable or unsafe.

Be respectful – Be kind online! Treat others with respect and accept that we are all different.

How Can We Make a Difference?

There are four key things to think about when it comes to making the Internet a better place for everyone who uses it.

Be critical – Remember not to believe everything you see or read online. Check information on more than one site and watch out for tricks or scams.

Be creative – Use the Internet to help you learn, play and connect with others. The Internet is a great place to share ideas and learn new skills.
